

The Thursday morning group, CROSSINGS, has one more week on the current book study. Come on Thursday, at 10:00 am to the Common Room for the final discussion of the two novels, which share common characters. The books are by Marilynne Robinson: Gilead is first, then we will discuss Home. Discussion will be led by Wanda May. Books are available locally or online.

Beginning February 2, "Crossings" will study the book, "An Altar in the World" by Barbara Brown Taylor, a renowned Episcopal preacher. This study will be led by Father Doty. A few books are for sale in the office ($15) or you can order for yourself.

Bishop Taylor will visit Holy Cross on Sunday, March 4. There will be one service at 10:00 am this day, followed by a reception for the Bishop prior to his meeting with the Vestry. If you or anyone in your family is interested in being Confirmed or Received into the Episcopal Church, please let Wanda know as soon as possible.

DIAPER PROJECT

The New Year is here and Holy Cross renews its commitment to the Safety Net Project for needy mothers and infants. Please bring diapers and baby wipes for the box in the hallway. It is much appreciated! Marilyn

New Church Member Directories will be distributed at the Annual Meeting. Please check the current listing on the bulletin board in the hall. Check off after you review your household information. Make changes on the sheets if necessary.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

6. For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
truly, my hope is in him.
7. He alone is my rock and my sal-vation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
8. In God is my safety and my honor; *
God is my strong rock and my refuge.
9. Put your trust in him always, O people, *
pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.
10. Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, *
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.
11. On the scales they are lighter than a breath, *
all of them to-gether.
12. Put no trust in ex-tortion; in robbery take no empty pride; *
though wealth increase, set not your heart up-on it.

Announcements for the Week of January 22

The Church of the Holy Cross seeks to welcome, love, and serve all people as we come to know God through Jesus Christ

Welcome, Visitors! We extend a warm welcome to you. In your pew you will find a visitor's card with a gold cross inside. Please fill out the card and put it in the collection plate. Also, please wear the gold cross on your lapel so that we may greet you.

There is a Nursery available each Sunday. Just ask the ushers to direct you.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING has been postponed until February 12.
Next Sunday we will have two services as usual.

The Wednesday morning and evening services will be cancelled until Father Doty is back on a regular basis.

Adult Sunday School Class, led by Duncan Ely, 9:45 am. a fun yet practical series on discerning, identifying, understanding, and using our spiritual gifts, including scriptural background, individual spiritual gifts inventory, and understanding what our gifts are and how to use them in creative and practical ways to improve our lives and make the world a better place.

Duncan Ely is a cradle Episcopalian. His life work has been serving as the CEO of various nonprofits. He is also a consultant to nonprofits, boards, congregations and vestries. He earned his M.Div. from General Theological Seminary and is working on his doctorate at Virginia Theological Seminary. He is also a spiritual director, DOCC facilitator and EFM mentor. He is the Executive Director of the General Board of Examining Chaplains of The Episcopal Church with an office here at Holy Cross. His wife Beth is an Episcopal priest and their son Penn is in his last year of law school. They live with their three dogs in an historic house in Columbus.

The Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea-- for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

Congregation: Praise to you, Lord Christ.
